EDITORIAL GUIDELINES

Dialoghi di numismatica. Protagonisti, prospettive, ricerche is an International Scientific Journal, openaccess (Creative Commons license), of the University of Salerno, which employed the peer review and double-blind evaluation form in order to guarantee the high quality of the published contents. Each contribution is evaluated in an anonymous form by two referees, at least one of them not part of the editorial board or the scientific committee, whose names can be seen on the Journal's website.

Contributions can be submitted in Italian, English, French, Spanish and German.

Each contribution should be completed by two summaries, each one not exceeding 20 lines, according to the following scheme:

- contribution in Italian: summaries in Italian and English;
- contribution in English: summaries in English and Italian;
- contribution in French: summaries in French and Italian;
- contribution in Spanish: summaries in Spanish and Italian;
- contribution in German: summaries in German and Italian.

The name and the surname of the author should be listed at the end of the text, followed by affiliation(s) and e-mail address.

Contributions must be submitted, upon prior contact, to the Editorial Board: Alessandro Cavagna (acavagna@dialoghinumismatica.eu) or Giacomo Pardini (gpardini@dialoghinumismatica.eu) and, as a copy, to the address redazione@dialoghinumismatica.eu

1. TEXT AND FONT

For text composition, Word for Windows (.doc/.docx) or Word for MacOS (save in Word format for Windows or .rtf) are recommended. Each author who intend to use uncommon alphabetical characters is asked to supply the related Font.

2. BIBLIOGRAPHICAL REFERENCES

The bibliographical references in the footnotes will include the author's surname(s) in small capital, the year of publication and the number of page(s) preceded by the abbreviations p. or pp., e.g.: Grierson 1989, pp. 112-134 (cited works published in the same year by the same author should be distinguished by an alphabetical letter: e.g. Manzoni1999a, Manzoni 1999b).

The bibliography should be listed at the end of the text, according to the following general scheme: author in small capital, title in italic, the remaining elements in non-italic. In particular:

Every single picture/graph/tab should be correlated by a caption. Every caption will be arranged under the related picture and should indicate the copyright [author or institution or bibliographical abbreviations if taken from a published book] in brackets preceded by the indication “picture”, e.g.: Fig. 1 - Roma, pendici nord-orientali del Palatino. La fossa contenente le insegne imperiali (foto G. Pardini).

In-text citation of the picture/graph or tab should be indicated in the short form fig., figg., tab., tabb., always with small initial and in italic. Graphs should be considered as pictures and should be included into the same numbering.

Photographs, maps and drawings should be supplied, color or grey scale, with a resolution of at least 300 dpi, in .tiff format.

Coins and medals should be pictured in full scale. If a different scale is employed, each author is asked to report it into the related caption.

Alongside pictures, each author should submit to the editorial board the ‘Release form for publishing’ duly completed.
